

Have an Egg and Spoon Relay Race for the Whole Family

Have a relay race using plastic Easter eggs or hard-boiled Easter eggs.

Transform Into Easter Bunnies

It makes the Easter bunny so happy to see lots of little Easter bunny families in the world. Little ones will love pretend play when dressed as a bunny who can hide eggs throughout the house, yard, or park. Make Easter bunny ears and cottontails in advance for Easter craft fun!

Decorate Easter Egg Trees

This is a fun activity that can be done in the yard after you have glued loops of string to plastic Easter eggs. This activity has all the fun of Christmas tree decorating with signs of new life surrounding you. For little hands that may find hanging eggs a challenge, they can always decorate the hanging eggs with Easter stickers.

Have an Easter Dance Party

Dance parties are even more exciting when they incorporate the bunny hop and when you move the party outside in beautiful spring weather.

Plant an Easter Garden

There's no better way to celebrate Easter and new life than by starting a seed garden during the Easter Season. Children take so much pride in growing their own gardens.

Play a Jelly Bean Guessing Game

Fill a jar of brightly colored jelly beans in advance. Family members can take turns guessing how many are in the jar with the closest guess achieving the win.

Visit a Farm or Zoo

Nothing says new life and new beginnings like seeing baby animals. It will bring the whole family so much joy to see baby animals at play at your local zoo or farm.

Play Easter Toss

Does your family love a game of ring toss, cornhole, or bean bag toss? You can play lots of fun variations of this game by tossing plastic Easter eggs or creating sturdy Easter bunny posters where the goal is to toss the bean bag through the bunny's mouth or tummy.

Paint Easter Rocks

Go on a family hunt for rocks that are somewhat shaped like Easter eggs. Then you can have fun planning Easter egg designs and painting.

Make Easter Music

For a fun Easter activity, have the kids fill Easter eggs with raw rice or jelly beans to create egg shakers. They can seal those eggs shut with Easter stickers and make music all day long with their new instruments.

Read Books About Easter and Spring

When you all need some downtime, having a few new books delivered by the Easter bunny to curl up with can be very sweet. Books about the Easter bunny, baby animals, and springtime are always a hit.

Enjoy an Easter Piñata

Spend some time outside with an Easter piñata filled with your family's favorite Easter treats. Easter candy is so much more fun when you've worked for it and it's part of a game the whole family can enjoy!
