LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading:

Gn 2:18-24

The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man. So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman, 'for out of 'her man' this one has been taken." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh.

Second Reading:                      Heb 2:9-11

Brothers and sisters: He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels, "that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them “brothers.”

Gospel:                      Mk 10:2-16 or 10:2-12

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

(The short form of the Gospel ends here)

And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

Communion Song 2* How Beautiful (Paris)

V.1 How beautiful,
the hands that served
The wine and the bread,
and the sons of the earth

How beautiful
the feet that walked
The long dusty roads,
and the hill to the cross.

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

V. 2 How beautiful the heart that bled
That took all my sin, and bore it instead
How beautiful, the tender eyes
That chose to forgive
And never despise.

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

Bridge:

And as He laid down His life
We offer this sacrifice
That we will live just as He died
Willing to pay the price,
willing to pay the price!

V.3 How beautiful the radiant Bride
Who waits for her Groom,
with His light in her eyes
How beautiful when humble hearts give
The fruit of pure lives
so that others may live

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

V.4 How beautiful the feet that bring
The sound of good news
And the love of the King
How beautiful the hands that serve
The wine and the bread
And the sons of the earth

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.
