Opening Song: River of Life*(Hulse/ Smith/Powell)*

Chorus 1: Brothers, sisters.
come on down to that river,
Guaranteed you'll never be the same!
There's a fountain flowing,
From the heart of the Savior.
Bring your sins and all
your guilty stains.
Let that river of life,
wash it all away!

V.1 If you've been searching,
Carrying burdens;
If you've been lost and
looking for a home.
If you've been drifting,
And something is missing,
You should know that you are not alone!

Chorus 1: Brothers, sisters
come on down to that river,
Guaranteed you'll never be the same!
There's a fountain flowing,
From the heart of the Savior.
Bring your sins and all
your guilty stains.
Let that river of life,
wash it all away!

You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: 1 Kgs 17:10-16

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked;

there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'" She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

Second Reading: Heb 9:24-28

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God!

Gospel: Mk 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

(The short form of the Gospel begins below).

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation."

(The short form of the Gospel begins here).

He (Jesus) sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

Everybody sing alleluia!

Praise His name today!

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit,
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake,
he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism
for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen

Communion Song 2* How Beautiful (Paris)

V.1 How beautiful,
the hands that served
The wine and the bread,
and the sons of the earth
How beautiful
the feet that walked
The long dusty roads,
and the hill to the cross.

Chorus:

How beautiful!
How beautiful!
How beautiful,
is the body of Christ.

V. 2 How beautiful the heart that bled
That took all my sin, and bore it instead
How beautiful, the tender eyes
That chose to forgive
And never despise.

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

Bridge:

And as He laid down His life
We offer this sacrifice
That we will live just as He died
Willing to pay the price,
willing to pay the price!

V.3 How beautiful the radiant Bride
Who waits for her Groom,
with His light in her eyes
How beautiful when humble hearts give The fruit of pure lives
so that others may live

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

V.4 How beautiful the feet that bring
The sound of good news
And the love of the King
How beautiful the hands that serve
The wine and the bread
And the sons of the earth

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!

How beautiful, is the body of Christ.
