LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading:

Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues.

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

Gospel: John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the servers, “Do whatever he tells you.” Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, “Fill the jars with water.” So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, “Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.” So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now.” Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Communion Song 2* How Beautiful (Paris)

V.1 How beautiful,
the hands that served
The wine and the bread,
and the sons of the earth

How beautiful
the feet that walked
The long dusty roads,
and the hill to the cross.

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

V. 2 How beautiful the heart that bled
That took all my sin, and bore it instead
How beautiful, the tender eyes
That chose to forgive
And never despise.

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

Bridge:

And as He laid down His life
We offer this sacrifice
That we will live just as He died
Willing to pay the price,
willing to pay the price!

V.3 How beautiful the radiant Bride
Who waits for her Groom, with His light in her eyes
How beautiful when humble hearts give
The fruit of pure lives
so that others may live

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.

V.4 How beautiful the feet that bring
The sound of good news
And the love of the King
How beautiful the hands that serve
The wine and the bread
And the sons of the earth

Chorus:

How beautiful! How beautiful!
How beautiful, is the body of Christ.
